TREATING AS A JOKE.
THE THIRD WARD DEMOCRATS
 Don't Want Seabright for Mayor—An Interesting Ward Meeting Last Evening.
 Delegates to the Convention Chosen.
 Political Outlook in General.

The city political situation is warming up. So far no general campaign has been begun, although neither of the opposing nominees for City Sergeant is allowing much room for spring beneath his brogan. City Clerk Bowers has been prevented by illness from beginning his canvass. Capt. Seamon announced in the Republican convention on Wednesday that he would not stand for Wharf Master. The motion in his favor will probably be annulled by the City Committee Saturday night.

The nomination of Capt. B. B. Doyener for Mayor by the Republicans on Wednesday was a general surprise, but on all sides the unusual strength of the nomination is conceded. A prominent Democrat said last night:

"You Republicans have a heater for Mayor, and we've got to hustle to down him."

The election occurs on the fourth Thursday in January—the 27th day. There is ample time for an energetic canvass.

DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.

The Democrats of the Third ward held a ward meeting in the Police Court room last night; that is, nineteen of them did. At least nineteen voices were cast, and it is probable that the Democrats from other wards who were present did not vote.

Mr. William Billingham presided. The meeting was called for the purpose of choosing delegates to the Democratic city convention to meet January 8 for the purpose of nominating a Mayor, City Clerk and Wharf Master. This was not understood, however, and the meeting went recklessly suggesting dangers which were voted on at the primaries for various times.

For First Branch of Council Messrs. H. E. Waddell and C. P. Brown were named, but the latter's name was afterward withdrawn and he was suggested for the Second Branch. The others named for this Branch were Thomas O'Brien, W. V. Hoge, Louis F. Stifel, Alex. Updegraff, J. H. Downs, Jr., M. Einselmer, Patrick Scally and John Young. For the Third Branch, Messrs. D. Ewing were named, but their names withdrawn.

DELEGATES.

For delegates to the city convention Mr. Galligan suggested four names which he had written on a slip of paper—Richard Robertson, John Young, Charles F. Brooks and H. Bleheron. There were also named M. Kelly, James S. Acker, George Baird, Jr., Will Wier, S. K. Kelly and P. P. Jepson. Messrs. Wier and Kelly declined, and Mr. Jepson was named, but he did not bring in the ward.

It was then explained that three delegates were to be chosen here and now, and after some talk a ballot was taken, choosing Mr. Sealey. On the second vote Messrs. Robertson, Young, Charles F. Brooks and H. Bleheron were elected.

Then Mr. Brooks moved that these delegates be instructed to vote for C. W. Seabright for Mayor first, last and all the time.

This was sort of a mild-fire-brand. Postmaster Seabright said he hoped the gentleman was joking, and there was a chorus of "No! No! No!" but whether they were meant for Brooks' motion or the Postmaster's hope could not be told.

JUST JOKING.

Mr. Robertson said the few men who were here had no right to represent the ward; if it could be done, there was nothing to prevent packing a convention in anybody's interest.

Mr. Brooks, somewhat amused, wanted to know if the delegates had any instructions to instruct the delegates as to name them. What was to prevent packing the Convention by choosing delegates favorable to a certain man?

Mr. Sealey then there would be no instructions. "We are going to have a hard fight to elect our Mayor, and our delegates probably would not serve if they knew they went into the Convention with their hands tied." If the gentleman was joking, he showed the motion would be voted down.

Mr. Brooks, with a grim smile, withdrew his motion, and the Convention adjourned p. m.

THE LOCAL BASE BALL OUTLOOK.

A grounds to be secured by the Wheeling Association.

A joint meeting of the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of the State Fair Association and the Board of Directors of the Wheeling Association, which was held last evening at the Public Building, with a view to making some arrangements by which a portion of the State Fair grounds might be leased to the base ball people for the season of '87. Nothing was done except to talk over the proper grounds, and the meeting adjourned. The Committees had no power to act. It was decided that a meeting of the State Fair Directors should be held next week, on a day to be hereafter designated by Mr. J. H. Hobbs, with the first answer of the State Fair Association to the Wheeling Association's proposition should be given.

It is believed that a mutually satisfactory and profitable agreement will be arrived at which will secure for Wheeling the coaching season, a suitable base ball ground and a series of interesting contests in the national game.

A Sneak Thief's Next Trick.

A piece of adroit till tapping was practiced on Saturday last by a foot thief yesterday evening. A stranger came into the store pretending to want a buy a blanket. Mr. Jenkins took him into the rear of his store room to show his goods. The thief had an accomplice, though his visible presence was Base Ball Association's proposition should be given.

It is believed that a mutually satisfactory and profitable agreement will be arrived at which will secure for Wheeling the coaching season, a suitable base ball ground and a series of interesting contests in the national game.

The Bridgeport Railroad War.

The railroad war between the C. L. & W. and C. & P. has virtually ended. The C. & P. has granted its rival the right of way in the rear of the new depot, Maggie Adolph's and Charley Miller's new houses, crossing directly in front of the river bridge, with which some arrangement, not made public, has been made, Charley Miller will of necessity move his house to a northern front. It is the purpose of the C. L. & W. to pack the depot looking to a transit station, as per terms now separating its terminus above and below the creek.

SOCIETY'S NEW YEAR.

How the Day is to be Celebrated by Wheeling's Social Society.

The crowning society event of the present holiday season will be the full dress german to be given on New Year's afternoon at Frauentheil's hall. It has been two years since the "German" assisted its friends to celebrate the day by an afternoon reception. The arrangements for this year's affair have been carefully looked after by the committee of well-known members of the old organization, who know how matters should be arranged to please everybody.

The hours are from 3 p. m. to 8 p. m. The rooms will be decorated with flowers and lights to the rule. Kramer will furnish the music. The favors are unusually pretty and include some handsome flowers.

The presence in the city of an unusual number of lady visitors adds to the interest in the evening. They will nearly all be present. The collision promises to be larger than ever, and will be led from both ends. Messrs. George Baird, Jr., and Alex. Laughlin have been selected to lead.

After the afternoon german is largely designed to take the place of the New Year call, the day will not be without that pleasant feature. Nearly all the ladies will be at home, informally, from 10 o'clock to midnight. In the evening the references a number of ladies will receive in the evening. Mrs. Col. Arnet at her home on Fifteenth street, will be assisted by a bevy of ladies from the afternoon german, and Mrs. Wm. Mochel, formerly Miss Chesapeake street, assisted by her guest, Miss Loring of Sawickley, Pa., and other friends, will be at home during the hours mentioned to a large number of their gentlemen friends.

"The Country Girl."

M'Millie Rhea appears at the Opera House this evening in "The Country Girl," for the first time in Wheeling. The Boston Herald says: After having stepped upon the stage as the second act of "The Country Girl" in the character of a boy, dressed in a most becoming costume, she excited much genuine admiration in the audience. Miss Rhea has a well-proportioned figure, and she smiled gracefully to the outlines of male habiliments and, with the donning of the dress, she assumed the character of a boy, not forgetting, however, by subtle and delicate suggestion, to remind the audience that beneath the masculine exterior there beat a tender trusting heart filled with the pure and hopeful love of an innocent girl. Her archness, piquant sallies, roughness and affected jauntiness in the more modest costume, made her appear so simple, delicious, and the return of the Page to the more modest, but less becoming costume of Peggy, would have been regretted but for the desire to see her happily united to the lover whom she had so nobly assisted to win.

The Horse and Dog Show.

Prof. Morris's Equine and Canine Paradox drew at the matinee yesterday afternoon probably a larger attendance than it did last night, as there were so many children who shared seats with older persons. No more delighted audience ever sat in the house. The marvelous performance of the horse and dog attracted great applause from the little ones and applause from their elders. Last night another good house greeted the performance. Prof. Morris will take his car over to the H. & O. yard tomorrow morning next week and the car painted and repaired. He will return here week after next and appear again at the Opera House. Large houses are assured.

"The Tourists" Back Again.

"The Tourists in a Pallman Palace Car" opened their second engagement, which will run for the rest of the week, at the Grand last night to a fine audience, and as before gave a very creditable account of themselves. Clarke, Kirke and Denier and Misses Mattie Temple and Ivy Schuyler sang a number of selections and sing them well, and the other specialties, especially Miss Temple's dancing and Mr. Kirke's imitations, are of a high character, while the play abounds in run throughout. It will be repeated this evening, and at the New Year matinee handsome souvenirs will be given.

Knights of the Golden Eagle.

At their regular meeting, Wednesday evening, December 29, Wheeling City Castle No. 2, Knights of the Golden Eagle, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Past Chief, Fred Thompson; Noble Chief, S. Brubaker; Vice Chief, Fred Capps; Grand Master, J. W. C. of West Virginia, Mr. of R. S. N. Hrab; H. P. Harry Drummond; S. H. E. B. Gary; V. H. Chas. Gering; W. B. B. Joseph; W. Bier; W. C. Thomas Greer; E. Quire, John H. Moore; Eschscholtz, J. W. C. of West Virginia, Mr. McClain; Second Guardmaster, Alex. Kemmer. Wheeling Castle will move from Peterson's Hall to Old Fellows' Hall, and the first meeting will take place next Wednesday evening.

A Pleasant Party.

Last evening a merry company of young people were nicely entertained at the residence of Mrs. J. W. C. of West Virginia, daughter, Miss Emma, a popular little lady among a large circle of friends. There were over thirty guests present, and they spent several hours very pleasantly, dancing, singing and playing cards. A Killmorey, a Christmas refreshments were served. It was a charming holiday hop, and will be remembered with pleasure by those who were there, for a long time to come.

Going to London Tomorrow.

Gov. Ozelsky, of Illinois, and his staff, and a detachment of the G. A. R., of Chicago, passed through Benwood last evening on a special train on the B. & O. road, bound for Washington City and the Logan observatory. The train attracted a good deal of attention as it passed east. The party will reach Washington at an early hour this morning.

"Burrhead Treat."

The First United Presbyterian Sabbath school gave a large Christmas treat last evening. A new feature of the treat was an offering for the poor of the city, thus learning to give as well as receive. The proceeds of the treat consisted of $100. W. J. W. Cowden, Superintendent of the Sunday school, with a score of assistants, and was conducted admirably.

Dancing Academy.

Prof. John Mallen's social dancing academy will open Tuesday, January 1, 1887, at Germania Hall, corner Fourteenth and Market streets, entrance on Fourteenth street, for the reception of ladies and gentlemen, and commence Tuesday's dance at 8 o'clock. For tickets apply to 10 o'clock p. m. Young gentlemen and Misses from twelve years can enter this class. The Professor returns thanks for the liberal patronage for the last nineteen years and most respectfully solicits a continuance of the same for the next term.

The Dogs and Ponies.

Arrangements have been made for the appearance of Professor Morris' famous equine and canine pets at Bellairs on New Year's afternoon. For tickets apply to our readers of that enterprising town that rare treat awaits them.

FROM WHEELING TO CHARLESTON

The Ohio River road to Route First through train to Point Pleasant one week from
To-morrow The Extension Daily
Inspected and Found O. K.

The latest information regarding the opening of the Ohio River road's extension from Parkersburg to Point Pleasant, as procured from the Parkersburg State Journal of Wednesday evening. It states that the public will positively be opened to the road on Saturday, January 8th, on the morning of which the first through train will be run from this city to Point Pleasant. There will be no special celebration over this event. The train will merely start and go on to its new terminus, arriving there in time to connect with the afternoon train on the K. & O. road for Charleston. The officials have found over the newly constructed part and found everything in good shape. As yet no definite schedules has not been made out, but at first there will probably be only two through trains each way per day, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. The run between here and Point Pleasant will take about six hours and the fare will be about $5.10. There will be eighteen stations between Parkersburg and the lower terminus. In order to accommodate the increased traffic the company has added the following equipment: 6 passenger coaches, 1 engine, 100 box cars, 100 gondolas, 100 flat, 100 stock cars.

With the opening of spring there is no doubt that work on the extension of the road from Point Pleasant to Huntington will be commenced and pushed rapidly and probably completed before the summer is ended. It is stated that the contract has already been awarded for a magnificent iron bridge to span the Great Kanawha river, and it will be built above low water and to cost $300,000. It is proposed to quarry all the rock for this structure this winter, so that there will be no delay in the work when spring opens. Surveys, estimates, rights of way, and all the other preliminaries will be pushed.

THE CLOSING DAY

Of the Wheeling Association's Grand Annual Poultry Show.

To-day is the last day of the second annual exhibition of the Wheeling Poultry Association, which has been in progress in the Zone block on Main street between Eleventh and Twelfth for the past three days. Those who have not yet visited this great show should go to-day; a walk up and down the spaces between the long row of coops that fill two stories of the building, will amply reward you for the time and money spent. A better collection of fine, partridge fowls has never been seen. This is the verdict of those who have attended the large poultry exhibitions in leading eastern cities. They have also seen some of the best water birds ever shown. The exhibition is one that the managers are justly proud of and one that has given the Wheeling Association lasting fame.

Yesterday's attendance was good and all were pleased with the novel show. The score cards and premium ribbons were prominently displayed yesterday and added very much to the interest. There were a large number of ladies present.

TIE GERMANIA CONCERT

And Held in Celebration of the Holiday Festivities.

The Germania Singing Society gave its annual holiday concert and ball at its hall on Market street last night. There was a monster crowd in attendance and every thing passed off in the most successful manner. The affair was a success from the commencement until the close of the evening. At an early hour this morning the concert programme was a splendid one and included two overtures by the Opera House orchestra, a number of choruses finely rendered by the Germania singing society, vocal selections by a quartette and a double quartette, a vocal solo by Mr. Charles Stenzel, a clarinet solo by Professor Grimm, accompanied by the Opera House orchestra, a declamation by Anton Hesse, a vocal solo by Misses Anna Hesse and Ade Linigman. The choruses and other vocal numbers were especially good and were warmly applauded. The floor being cleared afterwards, dancing was commenced and continued, the orchestra furnishing the music.

Sunday School Entertainment.

The Fourth Street M. E. Sunday School will hold its annual festival for treating 718 children in the lecture room of the church to-night, beginning at 7 o'clock. A limited amount of candy, nuts and fruit will be issued in paper boxes to the members of the school. A new feature has been added this year, namely: Every one who can do so is requested to bring a package of some kind to be given to the poor. Anything will be acceptable, such as can be used in the home of the needy. In connection with the treat, recitations and good music will be offered so as to make the evening an enjoyable one.

STEEL WORKERS' WAGES.
They will Likely be Granted an Advance on January 1.
(Yesterday's Pittsburgh Dispatch.)

A number of nail manufacturers from Wheeling were in the city yesterday. It was reported that a quiet meeting was being held with Pittsburgh manufacturers, but this was denied by Mr. J. D. DuBois, of the Wheeling Steel Company. "I came up here on business," said he to a reporter on this paper, "but have been too ill to attend to it to-day. We hold a meeting here next week. I am not interested in nails now; there is no money in them. The demand is good; but the steel mills of the steel business is good, and indications for a better trade next year are very promising and not." "The steel workers' scale of wages goes into effect for the first of the year. I have nothing definite been decided upon."

"No action has been taken on the matter, but I suppose everything will be satisfactorily settled. The men want an advance, but I cannot give the exact amount asked for. We generally regulate our wages with the scale adopted at the Homestead mill of Carnegie, Phipps & Co."

Secretary Martin, of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, was asked what action the union would take in the matter of arranging the new scale and said:

"We have done nothing yet. Our association has jurisdiction over three mills only, Carnegie's Homestead mill, Jones & Laughlin's and the big steel mill at Joliet. President Weir appoints a committee from the workers who hold a consultation with the firm and draw up a new scale if any changes are warranted. I do not know whether the men will ask for an advance or not."

A representative of the Homestead mill said that nothing had been done in the matter of wages. "We will close the mill on January 1 for a few weeks," said he, "in order to make some necessary repairs. During that time the new scale will be drawn up."

BECAUSE it is so unusually handsome and attractive in appearance, many persons think the Ivory Soap is intended for toilet use only. While it may be used for the toilet with pleasant and satisfactory results, it is a laundry soap in all that the name implies. Prof. Silliman, of Yale College, says: "As a laundry soap the Ivory has no superior."

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
